Truist Financial Foundations

Since 2010, Truist Financial Foundations, a web-based financial education program, has empowered more than 1.5 million students with the knowledge and skills they need to successfully navigate the modern financial world.

Truist has underwritten the cost of the EVERFI - Financial Literacy™ platform to high schools across Alabama, Arkansas, Florida, Georgia, Indiana, Kentucky, Maryland, New Jersey, North Carolina, Ohio, Pennsylvania, South Carolina, Tennessee, Texas, Virginia, West Virginia and the District of Columbia, at no cost to schools or tax payers.

In EVERFI - Financial Literacy™, students are immersed in real life financial scenarios and interactive activities. Complicated processes - like buying a car or filling out the FAFSA form - are broken down for the student in an easy-to-understand way.

Course structure

Course elements

Pedagogy based on the Universal Design for Learning (UDL) and Teach for Understanding (TFU) frameworks:

- Engaging multi-media content for all types of learners
- Pre, post, and formative assessments for evidence-based learning
- Certificate-based skill development

Select course moments

Filling out the FAFSA form

Students learn first-hand how easy filling out the fafsa form can be. In this activity, students go through the form step-by-step, answering questions on how to fill out certain sections, where to apply online, and where to go for help if they get stuck.

Understanding your paystub

You just got your first paycheck, but wait...That number can't be right. In this activity, students practice how to read the components of their paystub, including the effect of taxes and deductions on net pay.

Can you afford to buy a car?

That brand new sports car may be calling your name, but there are a lot of things to consider before buying your first car. Students pick a car to buy, and see whether it will push their budget to the limit.
